Eileen O'Sullivan is an artist based in Dublin and Meath. Her paintings celebrate the photographic gaze using collage-like compositions. She explores themes such as memory and place through a blend of figuration and abstraction. Eileen prioritises her material's formal properties to cultivate energetic palettes and collage images into enigmatic compositions.

Eileen O'Sullivan is a graduate of NCAD Fine Art Painting and Art History 2015 and the Turps Correspondence Course London 2020.

In 2021 she completed a postgraduate in Creative & Cultural Entrepreneurship at Trinity College Dublin. Her work is held in collections such as The Office of Public Works, Trinity College Dublin, National University of Ireland. She has been supported by Meath County Council and The Arts Council.
